(Special to The Times-Dispatch)
NORFOLK, VA., April 15.—Edmund
Christian, who was deprived of the seat in the board of supervisors of Norfolk county, to which he was elected on the face of the returns, under a decision of Judge Sims, of Louisa county, had his case before the Circuit Court, over which Judge Prentis is presiding, to-day. It was held that having been a registrar by appointment of the Constitutional Convention, Christian was ineligible to election to office while holding such position.
Judge Prentis decides that the County Court had no jurisdiction in the contest, and that the section of the Code relied

GAGGED THE VALVE.

Because he failed to notify the government's local inspectors that he had "gagged" a safety valve on the Norfolk-Richmond steamer Pocahontas, Engineer J. Russell Seemer is suspended for six months. Supervising inspector Cast today confirmed the decision of the local inspectors to this effect.

The officials of the Jamestown Exposition, who went to St. Louis to study the plan of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, have returned, except Director-General Lowenberg, who remained to acquaint himself further with the plans, and Messrs. C. S. Sherwood and C. Brooks Johnston, who went to Buffalo to look into the conduct of the Pan-American.

MURDER MYSTERY.

Four arrests have been made to date in connection with the killing of John L. Cutler, colored, who was shot mysteriously at Port Norfolk yesterday afternoon. Besides the thirteen-year-old white boy, Horace Bew, who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Cutler's parents, charging him with murder, Bennie Burnett, colored, fifteen years old; M. H. James, twenty-four years old, of Pitt county, N. C., and R. S. Bullock, twenty years old, also of Pitt county, have been arrested as accessories to the crime.

The killing is still shrouded in mystery, and there is little chance of its being eleared up until the trial of the men and boys now under arrest.

Counsel in the case of the Tunis Lumber Company, who went to West Virginia to lay the appeal from the decision of Judge Waddill appointing receivers before Judge Goff, of the United States Circuit Court, have returned, No decision has been rendered by Judge Goff, but the case will be fought to a finish.

CHESTERFIELD COURT.

Judge Mann and Mr. Pulliam Contest Swansboro Licenses.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTERFIELD, VA., April 15:-The Circuit Court has been engaged yesterday and to-day in hearing and passing on applications for retail illuor license on applications for retail liquor license in Chesterfield county, and the end is not yet. Six licenses were granted by the court yesterday, all being for the conduct of business in revenue commissioner's district No. 2, none of the applicants from that district having been refused. The names of the six are C. F. Shortt, W. M. Wade, T. B. Perdue and W. T. Sherman, of Ettrick, and E. T. Puckett and J. S. Lucas, of Winterpock. A. Hewlett, of Bermuda, was declined license because of his failure to secure the consent of one-half of the registered voters of his precinct, which is required in rural districts. The court does not require consent of half the voters in the magistrial district, but construes the word "district" to mean voting precinct. The application of Patrick McGranig-The application of Patrick McGranig-han, of Granite, which was to have been contested to-day by Mr. Frank T. Sut-ton, Jr., as attorney for opponents to contested to-day by Mr. Frank R. Surton, Jr., as attorney for opponents to liquor license at Granite, was continued until the 21st, the applicant having through misunderstanding obtained only the consent of one-half the registered voters now qualified by payment of politax, instead of one-half the whole registration of his precinct.

The hearing of evidence for and against granting license to Jones & Clements, of Swansboro, has occupied nearly the whole of to-day, Judge W. H. Mann, of Nottoway, and Mr. D. L. Pullam, representing the Anti-Salcon League and other petitioners, opposed the license on the ground of inadequate police protection, proximity of the store place to churches, and the narrowness of the street or wagon way. The court at the conclusion of the testimony and argument in a lengthy opinion dwelt on the fact that the law respecting the granting of liquor licenses in villages contiguous to incorporated towns was little changed by the Mann law, and the applicants being old dealers at their present stand, overruled the objections as to police protection and granted the license.

License was also granted T, L. Cersley to sell liquor in Swansboro, near Jones & Clements.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of heir grown, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Admiralty Declare Pobieda Only Slightly Damaged and Petropavlovsk Struck Mine.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15-5:20 P. J.-Out of the maze of conflicting re-M.—Out of the maze of conflicting reports regarding the sequence of events leading up to the destruction of the Lettropaviovsk it is now established that Admiral Makaroff, early Wednesday morning, took out his squadron to engage a weak division of six Japaness cruisers, which appeared on the horizon after the Japaness torpedo-boats, which sank the Bezstrashni, had been driven off by the Bayan. Particulars of torpedo-boat right are still lacking. The Russian commander-in-chief pursued the Japanese torpedo division until it was reinforced by sleven battleships, when he retired into the outer roadstead, where he was drawing up in line of battle when the disaster to the Petropaviovsk occurred.

Mrs. Slosser, the wife of a section foreman on the Richmond and Petershurg electric road, who formerly was a Miss Crocker, of Centralia, and now resident there, was fearfully mangled by the kicking of horses, under her charge, and was sent to a hospital in Richmond night before last.

Mrs. Slosser is an expert "whip," and is very fond of horses and driving, and owned a pair of gayly ponies, which she often drives. She was also remarkable in being handy at all sorts of men's occupations, not hesitating to do a man's work in building, plowing, or engaging in such work as women generally refrain from, loving hard and outdoor occupations. In this case she had rented some land of Mr. George C. At the annual meeting of the Albemarie Chapter of the University of Virginia Alumni Association quite a sensation was created by the statement of Representative W. R. Duke, of the Virginia Legislature, that he would not be a candidate for re-election at the next primary. Mr. Duke said that he felt he had been badly treated by the faculty of the University in regard to his effort to have repealed the old law prohibiting the sale of intoxicants to any student, whether or not of age, when he, while in Richmond, received a telegram saying that the faculty had unanimously endorsed the existing law. He scored the members of the faculty for their non-support of the representative from Albemarie and Charlottesville.
